THEATRE,-The entertainments this evening are the comedy of the "Bleak Hills of Erin," and the farce of " Paddy Miles's Boy."

"We learn from our Memphis exchanges that Judge Fitzgerald has granted another writ of habeas corpus in the Balton case, and made it returnable at Paris. The course the Judge has thought proper to pursue, is increasing the excitement in Memphis. We fear a rious trouble will ensue.

FARM FOR SALE -A very valuable farm in Jackson county, Alabama, on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, is offered for sale in the Pa-TRIOT of this morning by the owner, Mr. J. I. Sample. To a person who wishes to locate in a healthy region, convenient to good schools, churches, etc., and facilities for sending his products to elected. market, this place offers unusual inducements. It is one of the very best farms in Jackson county.

Mr. ISAAC C. HENLY, formerly of this city, is at present an attache of the Commission House of J. B. Carson, St. Louis. Mr. Herley is a gentleman of fine business qualifications, and, we venture to predict, will prove a valuable acquistion to Mr. C., whose card will be found in another column.

"The Home Circle" for September has been laid upon our table. It is, as usual, well filled. The principal embellishment is a portrait of Rev. Joshua Soule, which does great it justice to the remarkable features of that stern old "soldier of the cross,"

Our friends, WARD & BIRMINGHAM, Cedar street, are in receipt of a very choice assortment of gentlemen's dress goods for the fall and winter season, selected by one of the firm, with great care. Their a sortment embraces the latest and most fashionable styles, and in point of quality cannot be excelled.

BAILEY'S VARIETIES -This popular exhibition opened in this city last night, and will continue a few days. For particulars see advertisement. It is one of the shows that creates a stir, and will draw crowds, sure. Vocalization .- Mr. C. F. Thurston, Professor of Vocalization, has returned from his trip North, and may be found for the present at the residence of Mrs. Allen, South Spruce street. Persons desirous of correct, systematic instruction in the pleasing art of vocalization, cannot do better than to employ Mr. T. He is a most accomplished vocalist, a pupil of the celebrated Bassini, and a master of tions, Magazines, Newspapers, etc., etc. the art.

[COMMUNICATED.] MR. EDITOR: Sir - As our Municipal Elections are drawing near, and the excitement is getting up to about fever heat, and being only a listener to the W. A. JOHNSON & CO., many speculations with regard to the qualifications of those in office and those who desire to get in, and as I do not much rely upon street rumor with regard to the matters spoken of, and feeling a deep interest in the affairs of the corporation, though not a participant in the management of them, nor do I desire to become one, and, in view of the past, and the prospective administration, I would like to be enlightened upon the following subjects:

1st. Is it not imperative that an applicant for municipal honors, such as that of Mayor or Alderman, should be a bona fide free holder and a resident of the city, if Mayor, and if an Alderman, that of the Ward he represents. I do not mean by freehold, one foot of ground, or an anticipated interest in some estate at the death of some one, but a free hold that speaks for itself on the Tax Book of the

2nd. Is not a man committing a gross wrong when he takes an oath before the Recorder, (as I am told they are required to do,) that he is a freeholder in the ward represented by him, and the next day defies the Sheriff to collect an honest debt from him? I do not know that any have done so, but I ask would not that be a gross breach of ve-

3d. Can a man, holding an elective office under seat in the Board, and to sit in judgment on his own acts? And if he can, should there not be some law to prevent it?

4th. Does it require a man to be a good Whig, or a good Democrat, or a good American, before he can be promoted to a seat in the Board, or be an applicant for office under the Board?

Now, sir, these are queries that have suggested themselves to me from hearing the subjects canvassed on the street. If you can calighten me, I may propound a few others, that the community would probably like to hear solved as well as my-TAX PAYER. We are authorized to announce We LIAM R. DESCRIP-
